

A2- comprendre les informations pertinentes dans une petite annonce

Answer the questions below :

How many ads have you got here? ☐1 ☐2

Are they from the same landlord? ☐ yes ☐ no why?.....

What is the main difference between the offers?

Match:

Bills *	• caution
Council tax *	• références exigées
DSS *	• charges
Deposit *	• impôts locaux
Ref req *	• direction des services sociaux

What is DSS?

“People who are on the dole have a reputation for slovenly behaviour, dishonesty and fiddling. Landlords don't want them as they are too much trouble.”

sent by crazygr

“It means the department for social security, which has now been renamed the department for work and pension. basically it means they do not want any one who does not work and who is claiming benefit”

sent by MrPerfect

from: <http://uk.answers.yahoo.com/question/index?qid=20080110182320AAeIEFk>

Who can't apply for this ad? ☐ students
☐ people who have a job
☐ unemployed people

Read the first ad and tick when it suits your needs

- ☐ you would like a house to share
- ☐ you want 1 or 2 roommates (only boys)
- ☐ you want a large bed
- ☐ you are a student at Southampton university, you need a place nearby
- ☐ you can afford a £400 rent a month
- ☐ you can afford a £200 deposit