

Scénario « Homeschooling »
Cartoons

A2- peut comprendre des textes courts

HOMESCHOOLING

THE MYTH

THE REALITY

PUBLIC SCHOOLING

THE DESIRE

THE RESULT

DOCUMENT A

<http://www.besteducationreview.com/blog/3-reasons-why-homeschooling-rocks.html>

DOCUMENT B

<http://theapplepeel.org/blog/category/homeschool-funnies/>

20 Great Reasons You Homeschool

Written & Illustrated by Jim Erskine

Feel free to reprint or pass this along to a friend

Activity 1: describe and comment upon the first document. Complete the summary

Document A is a from about.....

It is divided in....., the first is entitledand the second
.....In each.....we can see..... all of them represent.....

About the first.....represents 'the myth'. It is
..... But the second.....shows ' the reality', it is a
.....It means that with homeschooling you are not.....,
you socialize.

Aboutthe firstrepresents 'the desire'. It is
..... but in the second called 'the result' the fish are all..... in a tin. It means that public schools.....

Activity 2: describe and comment upon the second document.

.....
.....
.....
.....

Activity3: associate each sentence with the proper drawing of document B

- 1 Homeschoolers have good and healthy meals
- 2 Children have time to read
- 3 Schools are not safe (secure), students can bring guns or knives
- 4 Children share activities with their parents
- 5 Homeschoolers can "miss school" for a personal occasion
- 6 Children are not tempted to belong to a violent street gang, they stay within the family
- 7 At home children can follow their own religious rituals
- 8 Parents know directly about their children's knowledge and results
- 9 Homeschoolers do not waste time in transport
- 10 At home, it is possible for children to wear what they want
- 11 Homeschooling tightens family ties
- 12 Homeschoolers can be taught during holidays
- 13 Children can participate to home tasks
- 14 Homeschoolers are not obliged to wear a uniform
- 15 Homeschoolers have got their own personal teacher
- 16 At school the students only meet people their own age, homeschooling encourages intergeneration communication
- 17 Homeschoolers do not follow the latest school fashion trend
- 18 Younger children may learn too
- 19 Homeschoolers are allowed to stay in bed late
- 20 Homeschoolers have breaks whenever they want