

Scénario 'Reading challenge'. Prepare your opinion.
Worksheet 10

1. Select the short story you like best:

.....
 Written by.....
 From the book.....

2. Why did you like it?

The story:

| | |
|----------------|--|
| Attendrissante | |
| Émouvante | |
| Passionnante | |
| Amusante | |
| Vraie | |
| Effrayante | |
| Imaginaire | |
| Irréelle | |
| À suspense | |
| Complexe | |
| réaliste | |

| | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Qui nous fait rêver | |
| Qui nous impressionne | |
| Qui nous fait peur | |
| Qui nous envoute | |

| |
|--------------------|
| 1. Frightening |
| 2. Complex |
| 3. Funny |
| 4. True |
| 5. Full of emotion |
| 6. Unreal |
| 7. Moving |
| 8. realistic |
| 9. exciting |
| 10. imaginary |
| 11. thrilling |

| |
|-------------------------|
| 1. which frightens us |
| 2. Which makes us dream |
| 3. Which bewitches us |
| 4. Which impresses us |

Add your own vocabulary:

.....

The main character:

Calm, courageous, determined, energetic, enthusiastic, fantastic, friendly, funny, kind, proud, silly, successful, witty, famous, rich, shy, mysterious.

Add your own vocabulary:

.....

The setting:

Beautiful, luxurious, exotic, realistic, comfortable, surprising

Add your own vocabulary:

.....

.....

The end:

Surprising, fair, sad, happy, open

Add your own vocabulary:

.....

.....

3. Write an introduction to tell which story you prefer and give its title, author and the book from which it has been extracted
4. Write sentences using the words selected and expressions to give your opinion.
5. For each sentence justify your opinion with an example from the story.
6. Compare two stories.